Why? Because you are the one that is writing it, promoting it, selling it and believing in it. Unless you have a passionate and knowledgeable interest in the thing you are going to fail before you start. Don't make an eBook about puppy training unless you know enough to help people and then love it enough to push it for the next five years.

It really depends on what it is; often it's a matter of preference. Change is a constant. So changing who you are over time is inevitable, and is always likely to be a good thing if you've stayed informed, relevant, and clued in to the world around you and have allowed your personal development to be a top priority in your life.
