Structural functionalism, or simply functionalism, is "a framework for building theory that sees society as a complex system whose parts work together to promote solidarity and stability". This approach looks at society through a macro-level orientation, which is a broad focus on the social structures that shape society as a whole, and believes that society has evolved like organisms.

Marxism: Structural Conflict Theory Marxism: Structural Conflict Theory 3 3 2. What Causes Social Change? Major changes according to Marx are a result of new forces of production. He used the change from Feudal society run by the noblemen, clergy, and commoners and based upon heredity. So there was little movement within the system.
